Please elaborate, if you wish...

Make one observation about a gallery you recently visited. How did you choose this particular story to tell?

How are you in the habit of feeling when you visit a gallery?
Please consider the condition of your body and state of imagination.

Have you ever traveled to a distant city specifically to go to a gallery? If you have, please describe what happened.
If not, would you, where and why (or why not)?

What do you do when you go to a gallery? Consider where you begin and end, who you see, what you do.
Map out the way you moved through this gallery; please annotate it with your intentions, actions and encounters.
